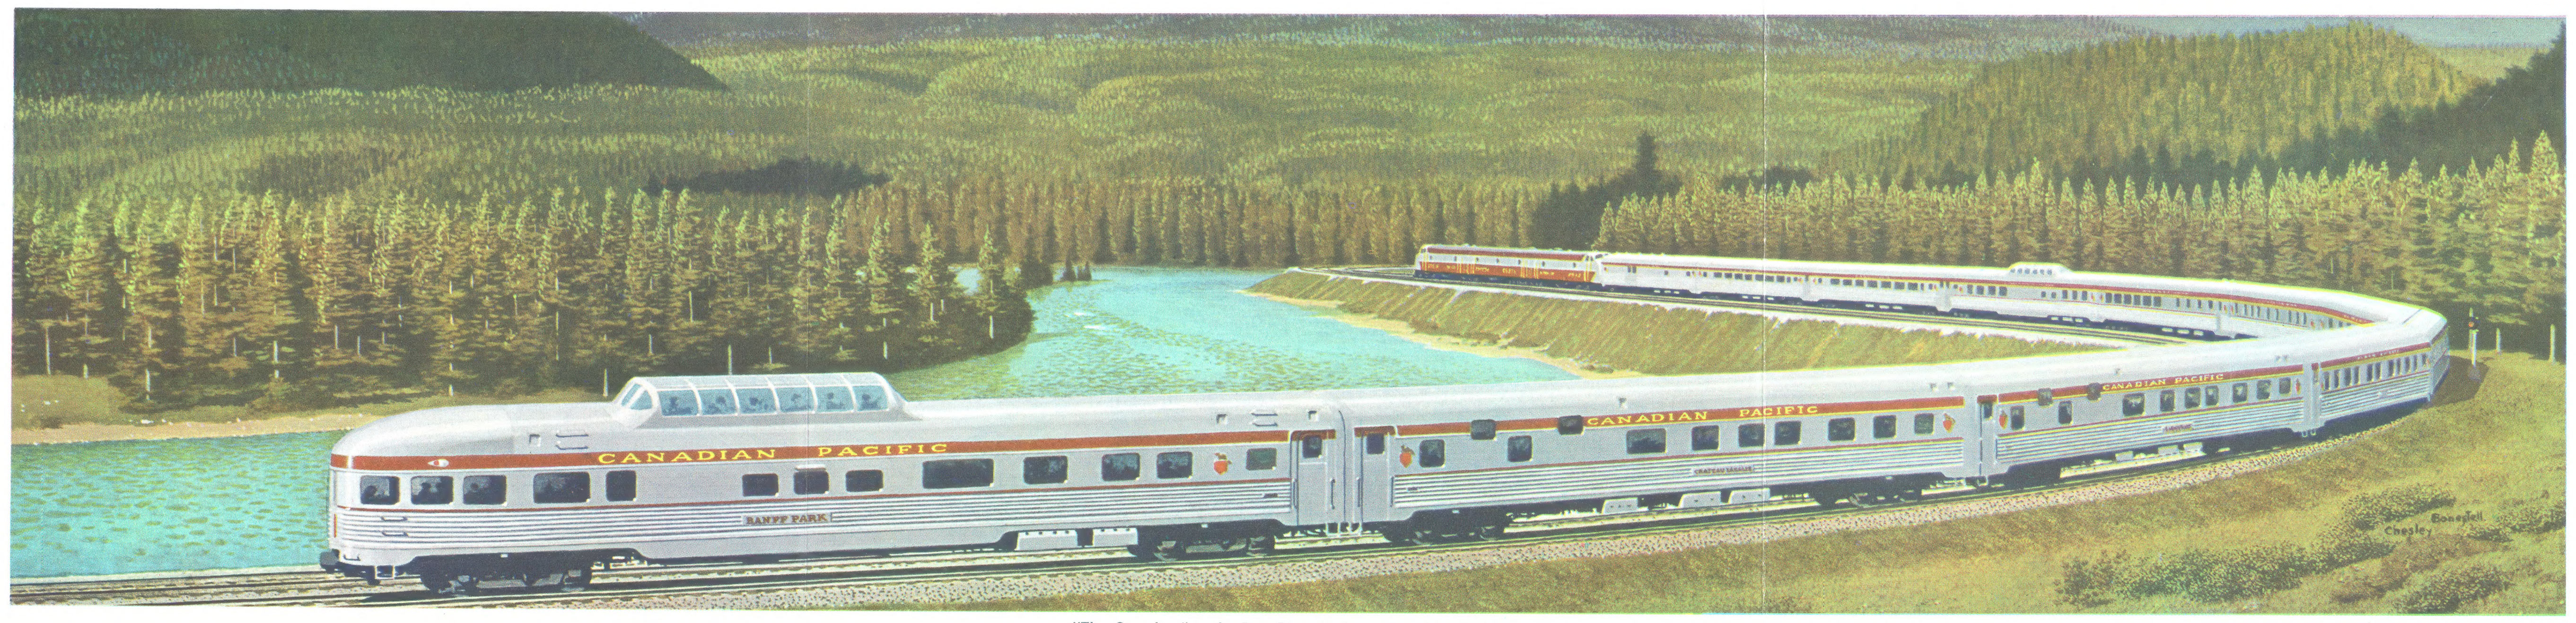
William C. Wonders
Canada P-151 (1967)

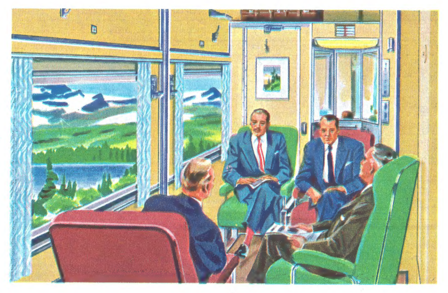


"The Canadian" in the Bow River Valley—Canadian Rockies

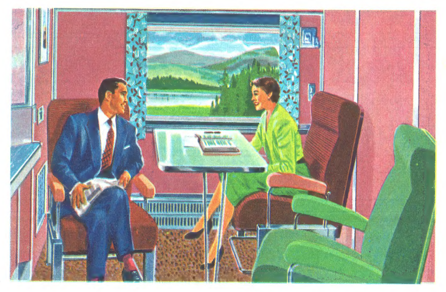
Across Canada by Canadian Pacific

Every day . . . across Canada . . . via the fabulously beautiful Banff-Lake Louise route . . . through the Canadian Rockies . . . your choice of two dome-equipped Canadian Pacific trains—"The Canadian" and "The Dominion" . . . your choice of two schedules planned for your convenience. Your choice of departures and arrivals . . . for business or pleasure travel.

Every day . . . across Canada . . . unending panoramas from Scenic Domes . . . club-like Main Lounges . . . intimate Mural Lounges . . . dining rooms deluxe . . . the daytime privacy of modern sleeping cars . . . the economy and comfort of coach travel . . . of coffee shop meals.



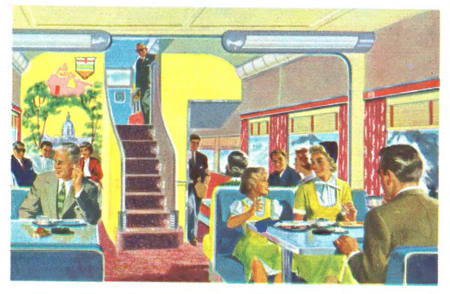
Business travel? Conference en route? Family travel? Bedrooms en suite are the answer! Two separate self-contained rooms by night, and, thanks to a sliding partition, a spacious apartment by day.



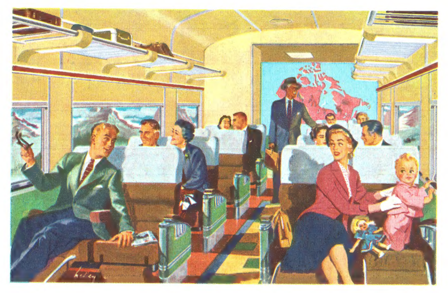
For single or double occupancy, compartments in the "Manor" Car with disappearing beds, private toilet and triple mirror washbasin dressing-table, spell travel luxury.

Glare proof glass all around makes the air-conditioned upper-level Scenic Domes of the "Park" Observation Lounge and "Skyline" Coffee Shop Cars ideal for transcontinental sightseeing.

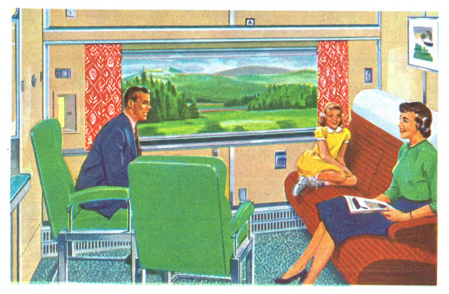
Distinctive Canadian cuisine is enhanced in the Dining Room Cars of "The Canadian" and "The Dominion" by uniquely attractive surroundings with Canadian flora and fauna motif in etched glass.



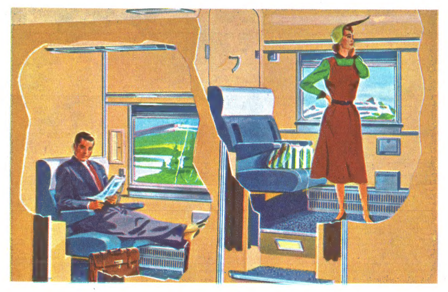
In the "Skyline" coffee-shop coach moderate priced meals, snacks and refreshments are served.
Its Scenic Dome seats 24 passengers.



Reserved, at no extra cost, reclining seats with full length leg-rests highlight economical travel in the map-muralled deluxe coaches of "The Canadian" and "The Dominion".



Three separate beds in the Drawing Room disappear for daytime enjoyment of this spacious apartment with sofa, two armchairs, dressing table and private toilet.



Luxury and economy are well matched in the accommodation available for budget travellers. Complete relaxation and privacy, day and night, is featured by smart new Duplex-Roomettes.

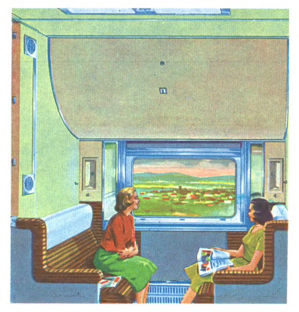
Comfortable chairs, attractive curtains and Canadian decor combine with wide windows to feature the club-like Main Lounge of the Scenic Dome Observation Lounge Cars.

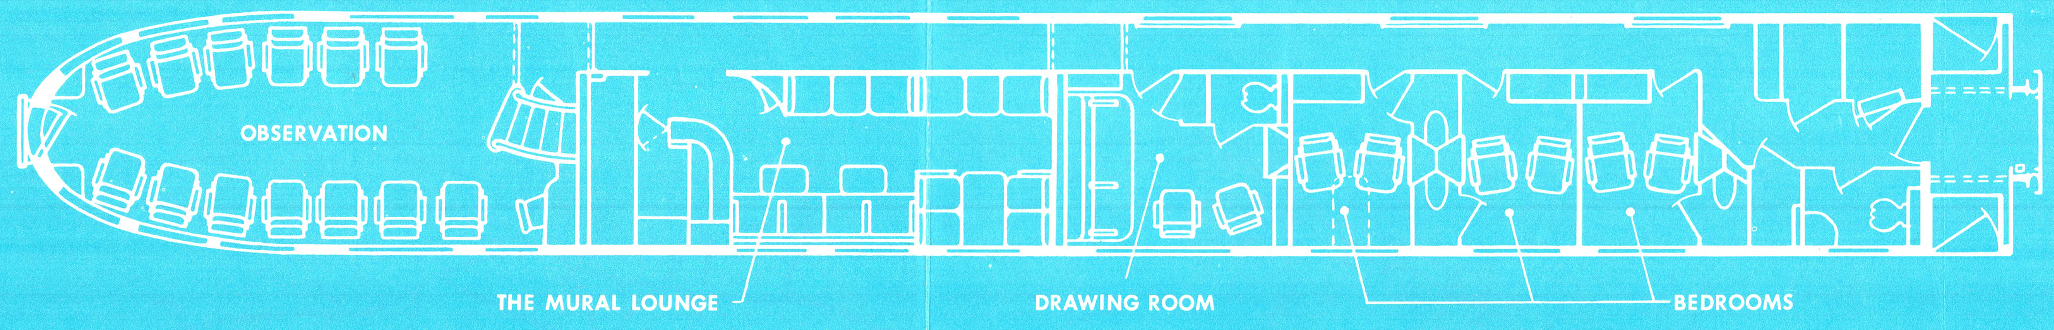
Intimate, companionable, The Mural Lounge—beneath the Scenic Dome of the Observation Lounge Car—is a popular rendezvous. Original murals by noted Canadian artists key the decor.

For private single occupancy, a tasteful, convenient, self-contained apartment for day and night relaxation is offered by the modern, economical Roomette.

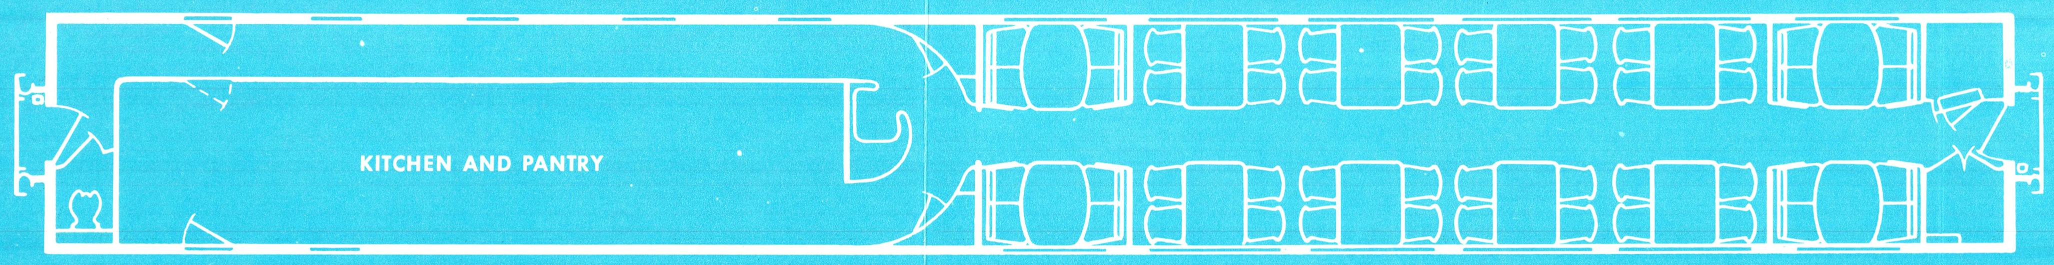
Bedrooms (single or double) are intimate rooms, have toilet annex, triple mirror dressing table-washbasin.

Upper and Lower Berths in First Class and Tourist cars provide nighttime privacy and comfort with economy.

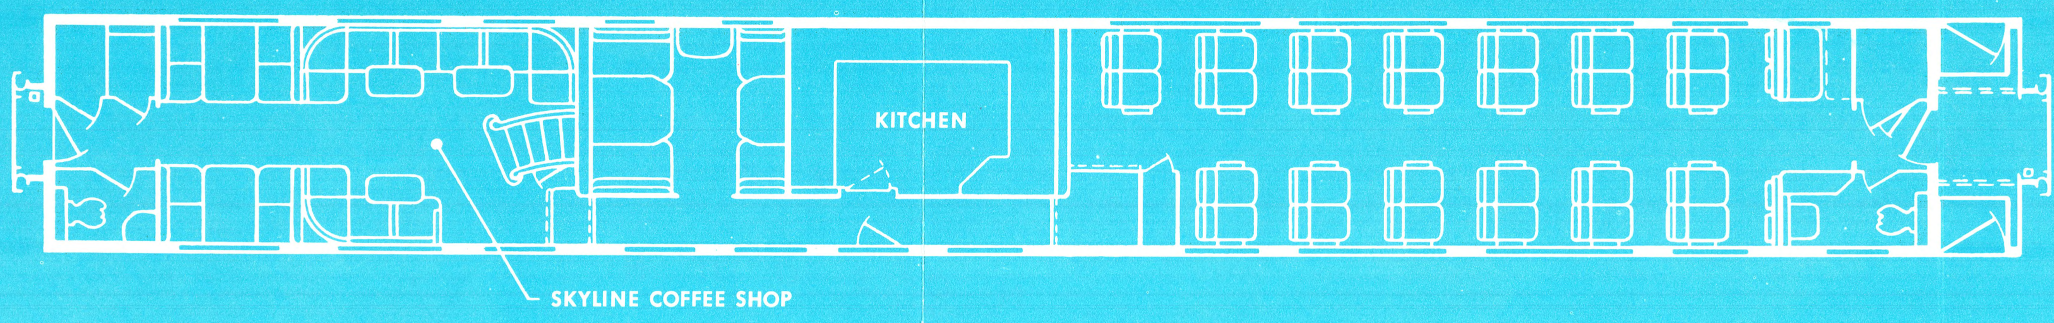




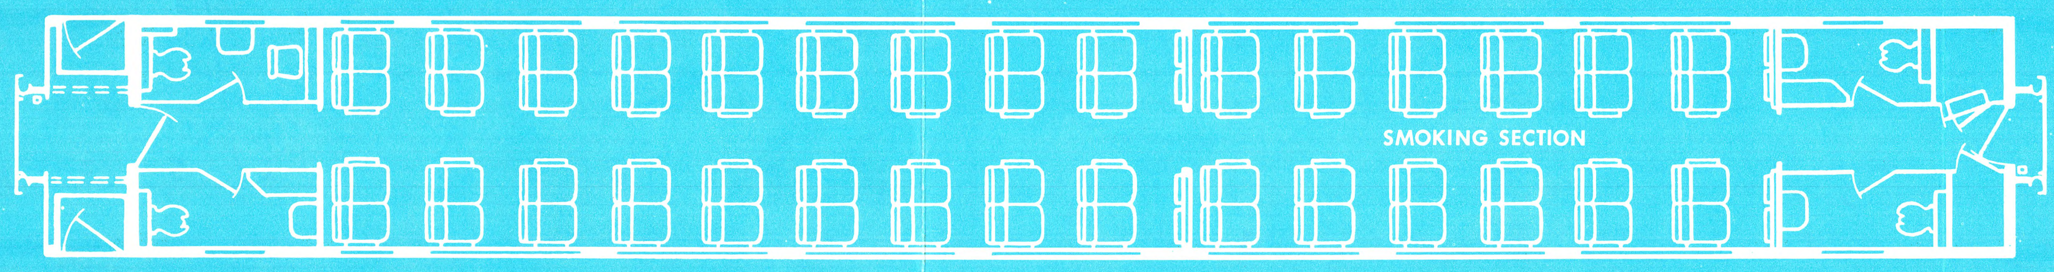
The "Park" Lounge Sleeping Car—24-seat Scenic Dome, Main Lounge, Mural Lounge and bar, Drawing Room and three double Bedrooms.



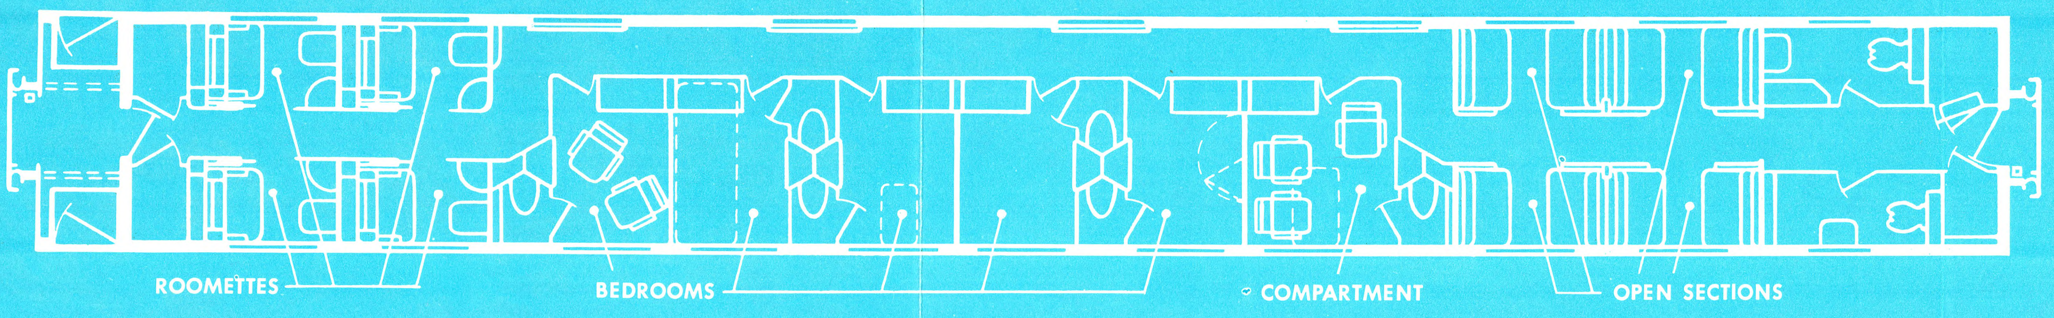
Deluxe Dining Room Cars—wide-windowed, softly lighted, keynote the Canadian decorative motif. Distinctive Canadian dishes are another feature.



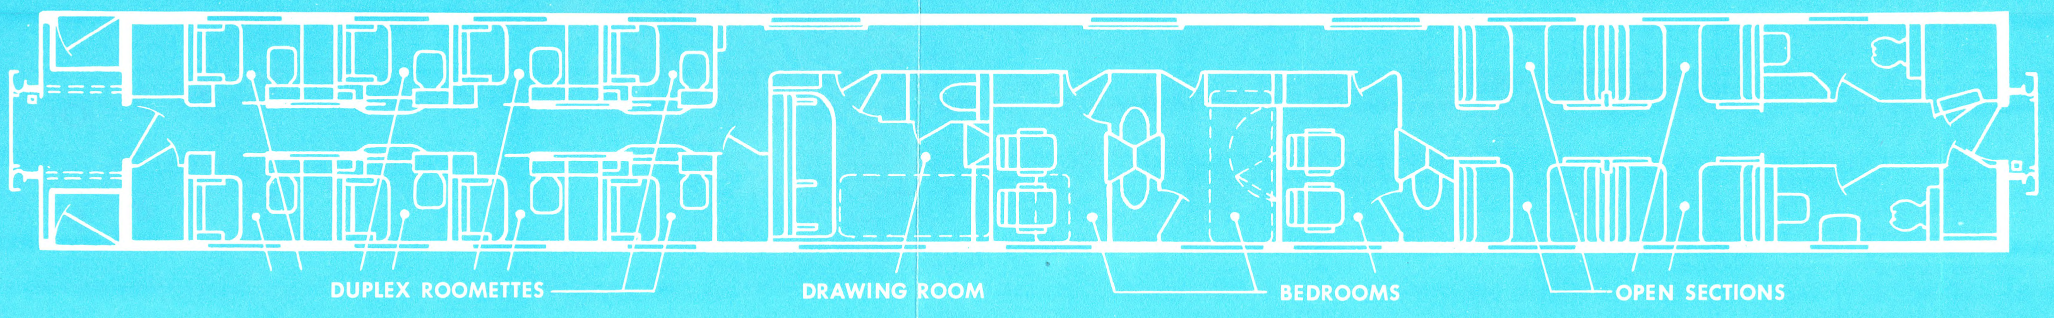
Dome Coffee Shop Coach—with 24-seat upper level Scenic Dome, attractive Coffee Shop for popularly priced meals and snacks—available to all passengers.



The Deluxe Coach, all seats reserved, features adjustable reclining seats with full length leg-rests, four toilets and wash rooms.



"Manor" Sleeping Cars—one Compartment, five double Bedrooms, four Roomettes, four sections.



"Chateau" Sleeping Cars—one Drawing Room, three double Bedrooms, eight Duplex Roomettes, four sections.